Today our theme is «Who is the most clever?»

Good afternoon boys and girls! I'm glad to see you at our unusual lesson. As you see today we've got a lot of guests at our lesson. Be more active today and don't worry please and try to do your best. OK? We are going to have a trip round the English language today. We'll have a lot of fun, so the name of our unusual lesson is "Who is the most clever?"

We'll visit a lot of interesting questions, look at the screen and do amounts of funny tasks, we revise the material of previous lessons and have a rest.

Today we shall have a competition between two teams. The first team is on the left, and the second team is on the right. Each team has its name, motto and captain. You should do the tasks correctly and for each correct answer I'll give you a score. And at the end of the lesson we'll know who's the winner.

We have jury. So our jury will judge the today's contest

So, let's start! Are you ready? OK! Ready, steady, go!

1. Team greetings. Presentation of the team name, motto, emblem (team members present their teams)

Your home task was to create the name, the motto and the emblem of your team. I will ask your leaders to introduce your team.

Team1: Who is captain in your team? Present us your team. (The name of our team is: Friends. Our motto is: We are the best. And this is our emblem.

The theme of the lesson: English as a global language of communication

The objectives of the lesson:

1) :-to active English Knowledge through doing different tasks

-to develop their memory and thinking

-To reveal mental abilities of pupils and to develop interest to studying of English language

The procedure of the lesson:

1) Organization moment: Good afternoon, boys and girls! How are you? I am glad to see you. Sit down, please! Who is on duty today? What the date is it today? Who is absent today? We are going to speak about the English language

Which language do most people speak in the world?

Why do you learn English?

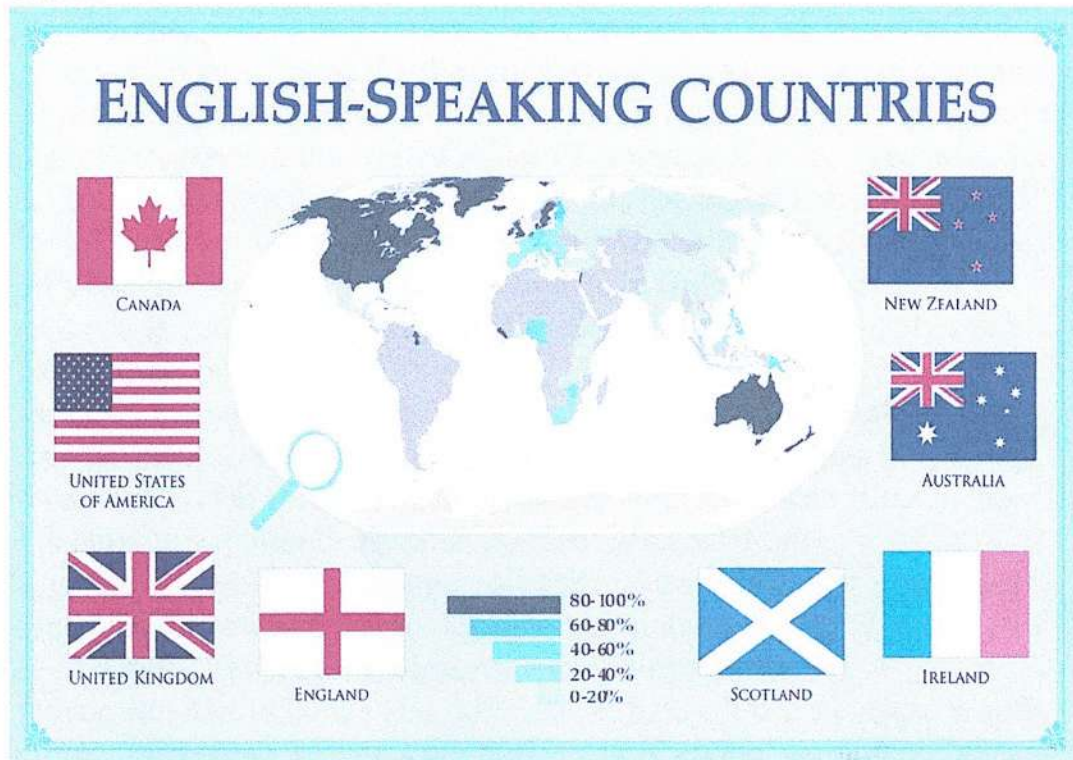

Every group writes down many reasons for learning English.

Why do people study English? People study English, because.....

What countries ARE ENGLISH speaking?

92 x 60 cm

1.5 billion people

English is the world's most widely spoken language but is unusual in the fact that the vast majority of speakers are not 'native'. Of the approximately 1.5 billion people who speak English,

English is a global language

- the most spoken language in the world
- the official language of ...

The whole world eats in American restaurants. The whole world wears American jeans, such as Levis:.. Everybody wants to do business with America.

I may find a fantastic job abroad and should be able to earn a lot of money

...I study English because I want to read English books of great writers in origin. I want to communicate with people from different countries. I want to understand their culture and traditions. ...

English is s.

English has become a global language in politics, science, trade and cultural relations.

It is the language of computer technology.

It is the language of the great literature. The great world writers, such as William Shakespeare And Oscar Wild, wrote their books in English.

It is necessary for a good specialist in any country to read and to speak English.

The most educated people speak English fluently.

1. English is very popular now. It's the language of computers, science, business, sport and politics. It's spoken all over the world. It is the official language of the United Kingdom, Ireland, the United States of America, Canada, Australia, New Zealand. There are more than 750 million people speak English in the world.

2. I think English is necessary for communication with people when you are abroad. If you like travelling you can go anywhere and other people will understand you if you speak English. It is the language which is totally used in tourism and travelling.

3. Speaking English you can read papers, magazines and original books by great writers, watch satellite TV programmes. When you listen to songs in English, it's better to understand the words. Watching English and American films in the original is more interesting than watching them in translation.

4. If you know English, you can get information from different newspapers and from different radio stations, because English is an international language. It's the language of books, newspapers, airports, sport competitions.

5. A person can hardly hope to be up to date if he can't use a computer and speak a foreign language. Nowadays English has taken the position of a global language. It is also the language of computers that help to communicate with the people around the world through the Internet technologies and e-mail.

6. In my opinion, English is very important to find a good job. Knowing English is the first criterion when you look for a job and big companies welcome those candidates who speak fluent English.

7. I think English is necessary for studying abroad in a foreign college or university. English is dominant in the present time as it is used in the field of education and you can't do without it if you want to get a good education and later a good job.

Conclusion of the lesson: What have you learnt today?

1 – pupil: English is spoken in many countries around the world.

2 –pupil: Most of mass media, such as Internet are in English.

3– pupil: Some of the largest film and music industries are also English -speaking countries.

4 –pupil: English is the international languages of business, science and diplomacy.

The objective:

- to active English Knowledge through doing different tasks
- to develop their memory and thinking
- To reveal mental abilities of pupils and to develop interest to studying of English language
